

JURITRUST CENTRE ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACADEMY NATIONAL MOOT COMPETITION

PARTICIPANTS' DECLARATION OF CONSENT

This Declaration of Consent is issued by Juritrust Centre for Socio-Legal Research and Documentation (Juritrust Centre) in connection with the Administration of Criminal Justice Academy Moot Competition. This document is structured for individual execution by the team coach and two team members from each participating university.

PART A – INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY & MEDIA RELEASE

1. Grant of Media Rights: I hereby grant Juritrust Centre, its organizational successors, and authorized assignees a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license to:
 - Capture, record, and use my still images, video recordings, audio recordings, interview quotations (and extracts thereof), and likeness during and in connection with the Moot Competition.
 - Publish, reproduce, distribute, and display the same across Juritrust Centre's official publications, websites, professional reports, newsletters, and social media channels for educational, promotional, and archival purposes relating strictly to the Moot Competition.
2. Gratuitous Contribution: This intellectual and media license is granted on a voluntary basis as a contribution to the mission and clinical legal education objectives of Juritrust Centre. I acknowledge that I am not entitled to any financial compensation, royalties, or commercial remuneration for the use of these media assets.

PART B: PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION & PROCESSING

1. Lawful Basis & Scope: Pursuant to the Nigerian Data Protection Act (NDPA) 2023, I hereby give my explicit consent to Juritrust Centre to collect, process, store, and utilize my personal data – including my full name, institutional affiliation, academic role, email address, phone number, and image/voice recordings – solely for the administration, coordination, judging, and public reporting of the Moot Competition.
2. Digital & Social Media Disclosures: Where personal data or media assets are published on official digital and social media platforms in furtherance of competition transparency and publicity, such dissemination shall be managed with professional care and in alignment with statutory data protection standards.

PART C: DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS & WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT

1. Right to Withdraw: I understand that I have the statutory right to withdraw my consent to personal data processing at any time by submitting a formal request to Juritrust Centre.
2. Post-Withdrawal Scope: Upon receipt of a valid withdrawal request:
 - Juritrust Centre shall cease any new processing or future publication of my personal data.

- For digital assets already published on official online channels, Juritrust Centre shall make commercially reasonable efforts to remove or unpublish such content, subject to technical feasibility and excluding historical print runs, archival reports already printed, or decentralized third-party shares beyond Juritrust Centre's direct control.
